2019 Junior Fairest of the Fair-Contestant Instructions

1. Submit completed applications by NOVEMBER 1st, 2018 deadline. All rules are stated on the application.
2. You will need to prepare two presentations for the selection program. The first will be a self-introduction and the second will be a welcome/ event introduction. Both should be memorized.

Self-Introduction

Prepare a 30 second self-introduction that may include the following: Name, age, parent's name, city you are from, school you attend and grade, 4-H Club or FFA Club, current goals and/or future plans. Remember this is a maximum 30 seconds.

Welcome/ Event Introduction

Prepare a 30 second welcome/ event introduction that you would give at the fair during judging, events or introducing entertainment. Be creative and use excitement.

3. Individual and group interviews may be conducted with a panel of judges. During the coronation program you may be asked an impromptu question, this is up to the discretion of the judges and/ or the committee.
4. The new Junior Fairest of the Fair will receive a cash prize amount yet to be determined.
5. Each Jr. Fairest of the Fair contestant must provide a silent auction item for the live auction part of the Fairest Gala. The value of the basket does not matter; items may be made or donated by a family member or business. The judges will be judging the presentation, not the dollar amount of the items in your basket.
